

REVOLUTON PROGRAMME PRINCIPLES.

We believe doing creative things together makes life more interesting and fun. It has the power to change people's lives, transform neighbourhoods and communities, create a more vibrant economy and have a positive impact on those around us.

We believe we can do this best when everyone feels they belong and everyone is responsible for making this happen.

The values that guide our work are Agency, Belonging, Connection, Creativity, and Opportunity.

We ask all artists, participants and audiences to respect the following principles when engaging with each other at Revoluton Arts:

- We invite our neighbours and local communities to take part in the creative opportunities we offer at Revoluton Arts. You are invited to join the conversation and share your voice.
- We ask that differences of opinion and life experiences are discussed with care. Remember that some vulnerabilities are not visible or obvious.
- We all equally belong in this space and everyone is responsible for making others feel welcome.
- At Revoluton Arts, our values guide the work we do, the decisions we make and how we behave. We do not tolerate harassment, discrimination, intimidation or any behaviour that undermines another person's dignity.
